JOB PRINTING—in plain and fancy colors—executed with neatness and dispatch. Call and examine our specimens and learn prices.

To the Advertising Patrons of the Democrat.

We have already notified many of the advertising patrons of the Democrat that owing to the advancing price of everything used in the publication of a newspaper, and the increased wages of printers and others, we are compelled to adopt a new scale of rates, to commence on the 1st of January, 1864.

We have enclosed a circular to our advertisers generally. The rates will apply to all old patrons, as well as new ones. This change is imperatively demanded by our increased expense in producing the paper, and is reluctantly asked. When the greatly increased circulation of the Democrat is taken into account, the schedule rates do not make it more costly in proportion to publicly given than it has been heretofore.

If any of our old patrons do not feel inclined to adopt the new rates they will please inform us; and should we not, in a reasonable space of time, hear from them, we shall consider them as having assented to the changes. If any desire to change their mode of advertising, or to increase or reduce the quantity of matter, they will please call at the office.

THE WEATHER—PROSPECTS OF NAVIGATION

COAL SUNK.—The weather continues to moderate, yesterday being the warmest day of the year, and it was thawing from morning till night. The warm weather has softened the ice in the river, and it is thought that navigation will be resumed in a short time. The ice has gone around the coal boats lying from Towhead all the way down, and it was thought that a large amount of property would be destroyed in the sinking of coal boats, but as the weather has been gradually moderating there is but little danger of a great amount of destruction being done. Had the ice suddenly given away there is but little doubt that a large number of the coal boats lying at our wharf would have been destroyed. So far the only loss occasioned by the ice at this point was the sinking of two coal boats—one at the Jeffersonville wharf, belonging to Cristenden, of New Albany, and one at Towhead, belonging to Miller & Briggs, of this city. These two boats contained between thirty and forty thousand bushels, all of which, we are informed, will be a total loss. This coal at the present retail price would be worth twelve thousand dollars. Owing to the sudden decline in the river, the fine steamer of Capt. Able, now building at the city wharf, has grounded, but as a ruse is soon looked for it is not thought that the steamer will be destroyed.

The reported poisoning of three soldiers, as related to the military authorities, and as published in the Democrat of yesterday, turns out to be greatly exaggerated. The physician who examined the deceased soldier reports that he was satisfied that he was not poisoned, but that exposure was more the cause of his death than anything else. The soldiers, two of whom belong to the Thirty-seventh Kentucky, were furnished with liquor at the house of Mrs. Long, and that lady was arrested and taken before Major D. C. Fitch, who directed that her stock of liquor be turned over to the medical department. The case was reported to the military authorities by a hospital steward in a highly colored style, and we learn that the steward was arrested and sent to the barracks, where he is confined. The case of Mrs. Long will be disposed of to-day.

A few weeks ago a man calling himself J. D. Campbell came along to Louisville, and, as such a thing was much needed, we gave him encouraging notices. He got up a wretched affair containing numerous advertisements and a very few names, and left probably to humbug some other town or city in a similar way. The thing is in no sense a city directory, and is an imposition, both on the advertisers and the subscribers. He is probably engaged in a similar labor of love in some other town or city, and is entitled to the benefit of this notice.

PROCEESINGS.—Wednesday, Jan. 13.—Mary Ryan, found lying on the sidewalk beastly drunk; sent out for sixty days.

Ellen Kingsley, on the same charge; sent out for sixty days.

The continued case of John Spalding was sent before the Grand Jury.

Willard was presented this morning for the second time on a charge of stealing gold and silver from McIntosh. He was held to answer the charge in the Circuit Court.

In the Democrat of yesterday we announced that four soldiers had been arrested for breaking into the house of Thos. Hunt, on the Preston-street plank road. They were examined before Maj. D. C. Fitch, Provost Marshal, yesterday, when three of them were sentenced to ten days confinement in Barracks No. 1, with ball and chain attached to their legs.

The case of the Commonwealth against Martin V. Boren, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was yesterday tried by the Jefferson circuit court, and the defendant acquitted. We learn that the accused, who has borne hitherto an irreproachable character, was promptly and honorably acquitted and discharged.

The Seventy-third Ohio left here yesterday for home, on a furlough of thirty days, having re-enlisted. The regiment marched through the streets, led by the hand of the Sixty-third Ohio, who are also en route for their homes. The Seventy-third Ohio was paid off at this place on Tuesday.

We learn that the three old hand-engines, the Franklin, Lafayette and Resolute, together with two howe-carriages, have been sold to the city of Nashville, and that they were sent down yesterday. We were unable to learn the price paid.

We yesterday received some Cincinnati papers, which is the first time they have come to hand since the cold weather set in, as the trains and boats have been delayed by the ice and snow.

Mr. Whipple's juvenile pupils are going to Brown hospital to amuse the soldiers on Friday evening.

R. S. Lukens, Adams Express company messenger, has our thanks for Nashville papers.

Mr. E. L. Ehrich has our thanks for a Cincinnati Commercial in advance of the mail.

On motion of Mr. Sumner, the resolution to expel Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, was taken up.

WASHINGTON, January 18.

Gen. Hancock has gone North to arrange, in the several States where his corps was recruited, measures to increase his number, by new enlistments, to 80,000, the whole to be destined for special service.

Mr. Rodman, in Lawrence, who will give all information to the public, has agreed to do the same.

A Washington letter to the Tribune says it has been decided to remove the rebel capital to Columbia, S. C. The writer is a Union man, later a rebel, when he had to leave the rebel War Department. He also says that the garrison and iron-clads at Richmond were, with one exception, ready for service on the 17th ult. They were ordered to move to a new and more defensible home. Those wishing to view the land or learn of the movement of the rebels, should go to the adjoining town, or address me at Long Run, Postoffice, Ky., or T. E. Rodman, in Lawrence, who will give all information to the public.

A gas explosion occurred yesterday in a carriage factory, on Eighty-seventh street. Several persons were injured and the building damaged.

A tax on refined petroleum, of not less than twenty per cent, will be recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means. Crude oil will not be taxed.

The Democratic caucus agreed by a majority to advise the holding of a National Convention at Cincinnati.

It is understood that the States of Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan have been brought into a military department, under Maj. Gen. Heintzelman, with headquarters at Cincinnati.

Ex-Congressman Bingham, of Ohio, was to-day confirmed as a judge Advocate for the Department of the Adjutant General.

Miss United States, for Tennessee, and Abraham Hanson, of Wisconsin, Commissioner and Consul General to Liberia.

BOSTON, Jan. 12.

The Traveler states that letters have been received in this city from a Northern clergyman who was established in Charleston with his family, and who has been a victim of the rebellion. He gives touching details of the anguish and suffering in and about that place. Many hope and pray for redemption, even at the hands of the Yankees. In his opinion, the time is rapidly approaching when we will be found necessary to give up the city to save the people from absolute starvation. Of course all that can leave the place will do, but many have not the means or the opportunity of refuge.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.

Descriptions in the papers continue frequent as heretofore. One can see General Meade had made arrangements to come over into our lines on last Friday night if they were placed on picket, but opportunity was not offered that—probably because their desire was known.

Dispatches from General Kelly's department, in Western Virginia, yesterday, state that scouts report General Early falling back up the Shenandoah Valley, and all fear for the safety of the railroad is now at rest.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.

Gen. Meade was here this evening at the residence of Mr. Corry, on the corner of Front street, by the Buryfield band. A large crowd of citizens was present. Gen. Meade made a brief speech, urging his hearers to seize every effort to fill up the ranks of the army, and to help, in their own way, to put an end to the rebellion during the present year. He promised for himself to do everything in his power to crush out the traitors in arms against the Government.

The Richmond papers of the 1st and 2d have been received, and are the latest news we have.

The author of the 1st says: "There are indications that the Federals contemplate an advance upon Richmond, and a general extension of their lines, which now reach from Trenton on the west and Oak river on the south. The movement anticipated will probably carry them up to New River on the one hand, and Kingman on the other. A demonstration is expected upon the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, thus threatening communication with Richmond."

The author claims that Jackson's opposition to the 1st, and the capture of an ambulance train with two hundred prisoners, including eight of Averill's officers, his Adjutant General, a Lieutenant Colonel, one of whom a campaign map, and some other things.

The inauguration of Gov. Smith, of Virginia (Extra Bill), took place on the 1st.

An order has been issued from the War Department prohibiting the departure of any mail or express to the Confederacy during the pending war, unless he shall first file with the department a certificate from the proper military authorities that he is unfit for military service.

From East Tennessee, under date of Jan. 12, the Richmond papers of the 1st and 2d have been received, and are the latest news we have.
